

A photograph of three people in a workshop setting. A man in a yellow hoodie is using a squeegee to apply black ink to a screen. A woman in a green Adidas jacket is smiling and watching him. Another woman in a striped shirt is looking on. There are ink containers and a screenprinting frame on the table.

Working Class Creatives presents

Screenprinting Social

in collaboration with Wolverhampton Art Gallery

Friday 29th August 2025
Lichfield St, Wolverhampton WV1 1DU

We hosted a Screenprinting Workshop and Social at Wolverhampton Art Gallery as part of their Friday lates.

We screenprinted our phrase 'Support Working Class Creatives' alongside our Self Organising manifesto on T-shirts, Totes and paper. It was a chance to meet other workoing class creatives, learn how to screen print and learn about our Self Organising Manifesto; encouraging members to 'Do it themselves'.

Alongside the Workshop, there was also an open conversation about art-making and curating and performances from Road 2 Release.
